Appleseed Productions is founded on, and marketed as, "family entertainment." All scripts presented by Appleseed will reflect that identity in the following ways:

1. Productions will contain subject matter and language that ranges from "G" through "PG-13" in content.
2. Scripts presented by Appleseed will reflect a standard of high quality in writing, be in good taste, and function successfully as a whole, balanced production and as part of a balanced season.
3. Appleseed will select scripts that can be presented credibly with the technical resources and performance space available to the company.

Please return this form, along with a copy of the proposed script, to Appleseed Productions by November 16, 2007
